

The Harmonious Duo

There is something admirable about the strong and supportive bond between Billie Eilish and her older brother, Finneas. Billie Eilish is a very popular musician. The siblings write songs together. Billie sings and her brother adds instruments and other sounds to the songs. As kids, Finneas was amazed at the talent of Billie's singing voice and he supported her in becoming a super star.

Finneas was great at supporting Billie both as a brother and a musician. They got along and worked well together. Whenever one of them tried an idea for the song, the other one loved it. Finneas let Billie decide the style of the songs the way she liked. He was a great listener and his ideas always supported Billie's. Sometimes Billie was worried when a song took a long time to complete but Finneas reassured her everything was on track. Because of their harmony and trust in one another, their music is amazing.

Finneas didn't mind that Billie was more famous than him and as a result, they both became very successful.
